Consolis appoints Denis Van Roey as permanent Chief Financial Officer

Consolis Group is pleased to announce that Denis Van Roey has been appointed Chief Financial Officer on a permanent basis, effective 1 May 2025. He joined Consolis as Interim CFO in March and now continues in the role as a core member of the Executive Management Team.

Denis brings over 25 years of international experience in senior financial leadership roles across the manufacturing and industrial sectors. He has led global finance functions for groups such as Armacell, Faist Chemtec, and Vinventions, with a strong track record in financial performance, governance, and strategic transformation.

“I’m honoured to continue in the role of CFO at Consolis,” says Denis Van Roey. “We have a strong leadership team and a clear industrial strategy. I look forward to supporting our business units across Europe, North Africa, and Asia in delivering reliable performance, driving operational efficiency, and building long-term value for our customers and stakeholders.”

Eduard van der Meer, CEO of Consolis Group, comments:

“Denis brings a valuable combination of financial expertise and strategic perspective. His swift integration into our leadership team reflects the collaborative spirit we value at Consolis. Together, we are focused on delivering on our priorities and supporting our customers in building for the future.”
